

Document Outline

```
<html>
  <head>
  </head>
  <body>
  </body>
</html>
```

Text

<h1> Headers, you can use numbers 1-6

 Paragraphs

Links and Images

* Link

* Image

Link ex.

This is what you will see, not the google link

Classes and Id's

 Div, a container for your code

class="name" Class must go in the opening tag

id="name" Id must go in the opening tag

Put the name of your class or id in the quotes, it must go in the opening tag of what you want to name/style

Linking Your Stylesheet

This goes in the head section

```
<link rel="stylesheet" type="text/css" href="style.css">
```

Lists

* Ordered list (uses numbers)

* Unordered List (uses bullet points)

* List item (these must be used inside your list tags)

Formatting

 Italics

* Bold

 Underline

Place the text you want to change in between the opening and closing tag. Ex.

This is a paragraph and this text will be bold but the rest will not

By bobsaget7

cheatography.com/bobsaget7/

Published 28th February, 2017.

Last updated 28th February, 2017.

Page 1 of 1.

Sponsored by Readable.com

Measure your website readability!

<https://readable.com>