

Intro

Geo affected pol organisation and rulership

Poor roads + forests = limited contact to communities

Family units → political units

Counts

Great Euro fams invested in fam history, traditions, records

c800-1000 New fams won power thru warfare

Warfare + marriage = expansion and consolidation of pwr

Genealogical rolls v popular

Family legend for others' perception of fam

ie Song of Roland (Charlemagne's reign)

→abt Roland & other Frankish warriors at Battle of Roncevaux 778

Literary re-imagining incl. Muslims as enemy

Probably composed between c.1040-1115

Royal admin

Personnel involved in running kingdom

Start of 12th century: small admin

Differed kingdom to kingdom:
→England: closely governed

→Less governed - admin issues charters & collect small tax

Even Eng had small perm admins in early 12th cent

Case study: County of Anjou

Count Fulk Rechin (end of 11th cent) recorded achvmnts of ancestor Fulk Nerra

Military expans continued in Anjou late 10th cent and first half of 11th

Process of encroachment:

1. secure foothold (marriage, warfare, purchase, force/fraud)
2. good rship w/ church
3. establish castle
4. wait for opportunity (victory in battle, enemy away, minority rule)

Counts (cont.)

Change by mid-11th cent.

territorial units of counties establsd small pwr blocs abutting each other dvlpmnt of law & stable pol rather than expans

Counts needed admin & staff to gvrn + exploit resources

By end of 11th cent. more docs requiring standing staff rather than ad hoc emplymnt

From early 12th cent, sec powers employed masters from great schools (like uni)

abut - (v.) to be adjacent; touch or join at the edge or border

Kingship

Violence → comital authority

God → royal authority

Coronation rites degraded position of count (though counts were often more powerful than king of France)

Kingship (cont)

Ecclesiastical rites by clergy:

Anointed with holy oil

Invested w/ ring and staff

Invested w/ sword and sceptre

10th century kings could style selves as Vicars of Christ

Derived right to rule from lineage - recounted memories of predecessors for legitimacy

Model for German emps: Charlemagne

comital: of, belonging to, or befitting a count or earl

Key roles of kings

1. Defend the people
2. Keep the peace
3. Protect the Church
4. Enforce justice, punish criminals
5. Lead (and win) military campaigns
6. Display military prowess and valour

Means of political pursuit

Warfare noble identity

Pre10th cent warriors: $ thru plundering

Post10th century, other ways to get $

Warfare unreliable for pol policy

Marriage method pol policy

Henry I married English princess

Strategic marriages good!

A king's power

Rested on

→ability to recruit & lead armies

→role as supreme judge

John of England failed

→lost most of Angevin and exploited his barons

Rulers bound by old law

→subjects could rebel and force king to obey law

→Right of resistance couldn't be repealed

→invoked against King John

Despite hallowed status of old law, new law was created

Announcement of new law codes:

→Roger II of Sicily

→Frederick II

Kings of Sicily - peak royal auth

English kings - control of court

German kings delegated auth to bishops - power to princes

French kings: justice in royal domain, not outside
