Why BTS is popular around the world?

At present BTS is one of the most repres-entative figures of the K-pop and all the music. Many of you ask how it's posible and the answer is the korean

But, is not the oly reason. From my opnion, I think it is due to the members, these guys are awesome in differet aspects not only in their works also in their personalities.

In South Korea you never see that people doesn't have anything, they always have somethin to do. So in this line BTS's members have the social archetipe of kind workaholic

How BTS help to the people around the world?

BTS is one of the few bands that has positive and reflective songs. For example, they have a song called The Truth Untol, in the first part of this song you will hear how the poeple have complexes that doesn't allow them to show themselves as they are, and how it becomes a hard problem. At the end of the song you will hear the hope that have people of show sometime.
