Memory definitions

Tulving and Craik (2002) - means by which we retain and draw on our past experiences to use that information in the present

Crowder (1976) - dynamic mechanisms - retaining and retrieving info. about past experiences

Stages of memory processing

Encoding	transform sensory information into mental representations
Storage	keep encoded info in memory
Retrieval	use the stored info

By isvel02
cheatography.com/isvel02/

Not published yet.
Last updated 24th December, 2022.

Sponsored by CrosswordCheats.com
Learn to solve cryptic crosswords!
http://crosswordcheats.com