

Factors That Brought About Change

WW2: Conscripted Black Soldiers fought for democracy and freedom. They then returned home to be treated as second hand citizens.

Education: Expansion of opportunity for black students through black schools, colleges and universities.

Liberalism: A rise in liberal political beliefs lead to a decline in colour prejudice.

Media: Rise in mass media such as television created awareness for the civil rights movement.

Migration: There was a migration of the black community from the South to the North due to the racism in southern states and growing opportunities in northern cities.

Cold War: The systematic racism was the polar opposite of the ideals of freedom and democracy the US wanted to protect from Communism.

Organization: Better organization through groups such as -NAACP: National Association for the Advancement of Coloured People -CORE: Congress of Racial Inequality -MIA: Montgomery Improvement Association
