

Individual Identity

Traits that make up a person's sense of individuality

Globalization

The process of the world are becoming one community particularly and interconnected

Collective Identity

A combination of beliefs, values, views of history, and languages shared by a group of people.

Puralistic Society

A society in which diversity is embedded as part of the foundations of the country
A society that respects and values the individual and collective opinions and identities of all people.

Global Village

The process of societies and economies become more interdependent and interconnected.
Marshall McLuhan coined in 1964.

Interdependence

Multiple people or things that are dependent on each other.

Cultural Revitalization

A process through which unique cultures regain a sense of identity, such as through promoting heritage languages or reviving traditions and customs.

Multicultural Society

A multicultural society is a society in which there are many different people of different ethnic, linguistic, and religious backgrounds.

Puralistic Society

In which diversity is embedded, valued, and protected.

Acculturation

A change in group as a result of contact with another group.

Accommodation

Accepting, allowing, and/or reaching compromises to allow for differences.
Something the dominant culture does to allow the minority culture to thrive.

Integration

The incorporation of diverse minority groups into mainstream society by creating an environment in which diverse identities are supported.

Identity Affirmation

Feeling proud of and protecting your identity by refusing to blend in with the crowd and by creating space for yourself in society.

Hybridization

The blending of media, art, food, and/or popular culture resulting in something new.

Media Transnationals

A mass media company that produces tv, film, music, books and so on in two or more countries.

Media Consolidation

Media companies buy each other and merge.

Homogenization

A trend towards uniformity, as with world popular culture as a result of globalization.

Monoculture

A uniform, global popular culture that results from homogenization and globalization.

Assimilation

The absorption of a minority group by a dominant group.

Marginalization

Pushing a group of people to the "margins" of society where they hold little social, political, or economic power.

CBC

Canada's anglophone public broadcaster. Owned by the federal government (crown corporation). Broadcasts Canadian, anglophone perspectives.

SRC

Canada's francophone public broadcaster. Broadcasts Canadian, francophone perspectives.

CRTC

Regulates how much Canadian content (CanCon) is shown on public broadcasting networks. Promotes and protects Canadian art, artists, and perspectives.

United Nations

Focuses on global issues

- Peace and security
- Human rights
- Humanitarianism
- Sustainable development and climate action
- International law
- Other current world issues (AIDS, COVID-19, equality)

G7 (Group of 7)

Focuses include

- Global food supply issues
- Economic and social development
- Trade
- Foreign affairs
- Global energy use

La Francophonie

Resulted in the creation of TV5

- A French language channel that promotes francophone programming
- Reaches viewers across 5 continents

Purpose is to

- Promote the French language
- Promote political, educational, and economic cooperation

The Bi and Bi Commission

Protect and promote the equal partnership of "two founding" races.

Encourage the 1969 Official Languages Act, making French and English the official languages of Canada.

Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms

Language rights.

By keiralxm
cheatography.com/keiralxm/

Not published yet.
Last updated 7th June, 2023.
Page 2 of 2.

Sponsored by Readable.com
Measure your website readability!
<https://readable.com>