i The bolded letters represent the noun classifiers endings. All numbers must reflect the class of the noun they modify.

i Add -w- after words, ending in a, o, sometimes i. Add -g- after words, ending in r. Double/lengthen consonants elsewhere.

Examples with cardinal numbers

NC1	NC1	NC2
ekzon fuwa	uggwa fúl	ekkan gór
"one boy"	"one flower"	"one house"
duizon fuwa	duwa fúl	duiyan gór
"two boys"	"two flowers"	"two houses"

i When the noun is in plural, it can either drop or take the designated plural marker okkol, as in duiyan gór okkol "two houses." Both are considered correct and natural in Rohingya.

Ordinal numbers

Rohingya	English
foila	first
dusora	second
tisera	third
sair lombor	fourth
fāz lombor	fifth
so lombor	sixth
hāt lombor	seventh
ašto lombor	eighth
no lombor	ninth
doš lombor	tenth

i Lit. lombor means "number" in Rohingya, e.g., sair lomboror din means "fourth day," whose lit. meaning is "four number's day."
