

Clinical Features

Complex neurobiological and developmental disability

Seen in the first 3 years

Lifelong

Mild, Moderate and Severe

Social interaction and communication skills is impaired

Signs and Symptoms

socially related

develop and maintaining relationships

speech

routines

hyperactivity

sensory disturbances

resistance to change

DSM-5

Level 1 - Mild	Level 2 - Moderate	Level 3 - Severe
----------------	--------------------	------------------

individual participation with support	substantial support	very substantial support non verbal

Diagnostic/Labs

lack responsiveness	inability to self care
---------------------	------------------------

lack cooperation	self injury
------------------	-------------

repetitive behaviors	not meeting social norms
----------------------	--------------------------

language delay

Medication/Treatment

- Risperidone

- Ambify

- SSRI's

Psychosocial Interventions

programs

treatment plans

therapies

By lobolucy

cheatography.com/lobolucy/

Not published yet.

Last updated 13th April, 2024.

Page 1 of 1.

Sponsored by Readable.com

Measure your website readability!

<https://readable.com>