

Unit one Vocabulary

Words	Definition
Struct- uralsim	An early school of psychology that used introspection to explore the elemental structure of the human mind.
functi- onalism and gestalt	F: Focuses on how our mental and behavioral processes function how they enable us to adapt, survive, and flourish.
Behaviorist Approach
Humanistic Approach
Evolutionary Approach Biological approach
cognitive approach Biopsychosocial approach
Sociocultural approach
Biological domain
Clinical domain
Cognitive domain counseling domain
developmental domain
educational domain
Experimental domain
Industrial-organizational domain
Personality domain
Psychometric Domain
Social domain
Positive domain
Operational Domain
Experimental research Correlational research survey research
Naturalistic observation
Case study
Longitudinal study
Cross-sectional study reliability Validity
Independent variable dependent variable
confounding variable

Unit one Vocabulary (cont)

constant Generalizability (mean, median, mode)
Range
Standard deviation Normal distribution
bimodal distribution Positive skew Negative skew correlation coefficient Alpha level
Null Hypothesis
Type one error I
Type two error II
Debrief Informed consent
institutional review board random assignment
random selection
Double blind experiment
Placebo method
Hawthorn effect response or participant bias

Important people of unit 1

Name	contribution/what they did what they are known for
------	--

Graph stuff

Name/Definition	Picture
-----------------	---------

1 Types of studies

Name	What is it?
------	-------------