SAP

Make sure to run these commands as <sid>adm user

Monitoring SAP instances

sapcontrol -nr <nr> -function GetSystemInstanceList Shows all configured instances and their respective status

Starting and stopping SAP instances sapcontrol -nr <nr> -function Start Starts the given SAP instance sapcontrol -nr <nr> -function Stop Stops the given SAP instance

SAP log file locations

```
/usr/s ap/ <SI D>/ <IN STA NCE >/work/
```
Workprocess and other log files

```
/home/ <si d>a dm/ [st art |st op] sap _<I NST ANC - E>.log
```
Startup and shutdown trace

Oracle

Make sure to run these commands as ora<sid> user

Monitoring Oracle instances

lsnrctl status
Displays the status or the Oracle listener

Starting the Oracle listener

lsnrctl start
Starts the Oracle listener

Oracle log file locations

```
/oracl e/< SID >/s apt rac e/d iag /rd bms /<s id>/
<SI D>/ tra ce/ alt ert _<S ID>.log
```
Oralce instance log

Cluster

Make sure to run these commands as root user

Monitoring the Cluster status

crm_mon -1Arfj
Displays the configured Cluster resources and their respective status

Manging cluster resources

crm resource start <name> Starts the given resource crm resource stop <name> Stops the given resource crm resource cleanup <name>

Removes a given resources failure state (and does a recheck)

Migrating Cluster resources

crm resource migrate <resource> PT<N>M Forces a resource away from the current node for N minutes

By MoepMan
cheatography.com/moepman/

Not published yet.
Last updated 18th September, 2019.
Page 1 of 1.