Useful commands

lsb_release -a	get current version of os service <name of service> start/stop/restart/status	self explanatory

Initial configuration

sudo apt-get update sudo apt-get install git sudo apt install net-tools sudo apt install vim

Setup ssh

sudo apt update	(server) update package repository sudo apt install openssh-server	(server) install ssh sudo systemctl status ssh	(server) check status of service sudo ufw allow ssh	(server) enable firewall sudo systemctl enable ssh	(server) start ssh upon boot ssh-keygen	(client) create key pair ssh-copy-id username@remote_host	(linux) copy public key ssh <user>@<ip> mkdir -p ~/.ssh sudo nano ~/.ssh/authorized_keys <copy content of .pub file>	(windows) copy public key sudo chown -R <user>:<user> ~/.ssh/authorized_keys	set ownership of key file chmod 700 /home/username/.ssh chmod 600 ~/.ssh/authorized_keys	(server) set permissions ssh <user>@<ip> -i <full path of private key>	(client) connect open C:\Users\<username>\.ssh\config add entry for ip address	(windows) add entry into ssh config

Setup xRDP

sudo apt-get install xfce4 sudo apt-get install xrdp sudo systemctl enable xrdp echo xfce4-session >~/.xsession sudo service xrdp restart

Setup xRDP (cont)

sudo passwd rdpuser

Setup redis

sudo apt install redis-server	install sudo nano /etc/redis/redis.conf	change to supervised systemd sudo systemctl restart redis.service sudo systemctl enable /lib/systemd/system/redis-server.service

History Operations

~/.bash_history	contains history even after reboot
!v	run last command that starts with v
!$	last argument
!?etc	last command contains etc history	show command history cd .	change to home dir
!30	run command at line number 30 from history ctrl-r	search commands, esc or enter to edit or run HISTCONTROL=erasedups	erase duplicate commands from history history -c + history -w	clear history history -r	whenever you last wrote

Shutdown

shutdown	shutdown
reboot	reboot
poweroff	same as shutdown halt	same as shutdown
init 0	same as shutdown
init 6	same as shutdown
shutdown -r +n "warning"	reboot in n minutes, display warning shutdown -r now	reboot now shutdown -c	cancel a pending shutdown shutdown -h	shutdown and then halt shutdown hh:mm	shutdown at specified time