- British Industrial Revolution gave birth to twin engine of global trade
- 1) Innovation of industrial machines to make iron, textiles, & manufactured goods
- 2) Steam Engine- steamships and trains that allowed transport of goods
- Second Industrial Revolution (cars & planes)

Institutions like the European union & other trade channels backed by the USA increased international trade

- Gave rise to the internet
- Global exports rose to about a quarter of global GDP in the 2000s
- Trade, which is the sum of imports & exports, grew about half of the world GDP
- In some countries, like
 Singapore, Belgium, and others, trade is worth much more than 100% of GDP.

In this "global age", the US sets the tone and leads the way.

World Wars (1914-1945)

World War I (1914-1918) ended globalization adn reign of high societies in the West- war replaced trade, civilians died, infrastructures destroyed, countries closed borders, financial markets collapsed.

World War II (1939-1945) - trade as a percentage of world's GDP fell to 5% - a level not seen in more than a hundred years.

World Trade Org

- Encouraged international organizations to enter free-trade agreements. Trade once again rose to 1914 levels, and in 1989, export once again counted for 14% of the global GDP.

With the collapse of the Soviet Union & the wall dividing the East & West, globalization became an all-conquering force.

Theories of Globalization (Nature & Purpose)

1. Liberalism

- Human beings haave a natural desire to exercise their basic freedomes & maximize their material well-being.
- Political liberties & economic welfare like:
- Technological developmentespecially communication & transportation
- 2) Legal and Institutional undertakings to enable the liberalization of markets

Globalization as an extension of modernization

- Promote the necessity of institutional structures & standardization of processes

2. Political Realism

- The state as the principal actor of global-ization
- Believe that states are innately self-serving, thus competition for power is inevitable.
- Existence of a dominant state is neccessary in bringing stability to world order.
- Competition among power-hungry states generates global relations.

Globalization is used by major states like China, Japan, Great Britain, and USA

3. Constructivism

- Apolitical Tendecy: concentrate on people's mental construction of the social world.
- Believes that one's personal perception & symbolic exchanges w/others help them construct ideas of the world, belongingness in the world, and the rules for social interaction.
- Globalization as a result of people's individual consciousness & inter-subjective communications.

Constructivists perceive themselves as citizens of a particular world.

4. Marxism

"Capital by its nature drives beyond every spatial barrier to conquer the whole earth for its market".

It results to a profit-oriented system that seeks unceasing expansion.

 Conquer earth for its market; capitalist exploitation
