ESSAY

4th Amendment

-Protects Persons, Houses, Papers, Effects from unreasonable searches and seizures (Arbitrary Gov't Intrusion)
-4th Amdt applied to states via the 14th Amdt DP Clause

Issue:

Whether police collection of (evidence) is a search because if a search, need warrant first or presumptively unreasonable.

Search

Presumptively unreasonable in the absence of a warrant

Two tests whether or not a search:

1. Jones: Trespass plus intent to obtain information
2. Katz (Harlan's concurring opinion): Reasonable expectation of privacy subjectively held.

Jones

1. Trespass
2. Intent to obtain information

-Alito/Sotomayor concurrences

Highlight length of search and how intimate details of one's life are revealed when GPSed for 28 days, hence crossing line of REOP.

What is a Search? (cont)

--Sotomayor concurrence

Phone records turn into a search because of the huge amount of data (life details) that could be revealed. Privacy shouldn't be treated as a discrete commodity.

Katz

1. Subjective Expectation of Privacy
2. Reasonable Expectation of Privacy

Katz majority, Maryland v. Smith

What one knowingly exposes to the public is not protected by the 4th amendment because no REOP in what one knowing exposes

REOP Test

1. Site ex) home
2. Steps taken to keep information private. Not knowingly exposing oneself to the public.
3. Degree of intrusion

2.No REOP when one is knowingly exposed to the public

1. White v. Maryland: in that knowingly giving telephone numbers dialed to phone company hence pen register capture of that data (metadata) is not a search because the phone co. is a 3rd party
->assumption of risk
->public
2. Knotts: which found knowing exposure of movements on public road to not constitute a search
----Exception----
3. Karo: found that beeper identifying movement of canister inside a home was a search
