

Google Docs - Saving as MS Word Cheat Sheet by Katherine Rose Consulting (thepq)via cheatography.com/71357/cs/18085/

Get Started!
1. Go to Google Docs	https://www.docs.google.com
2. Log in to your Google account	Note: If you do not already have a Google account, you'll need to create one
Google account	account, you'll need to create one

Creating	а	new	docu	men

1. once logged in: Look for the start new document box

2. Choose In this case, you'll want to choose the blank

document type document type

Titlo	and \	Mrito '	Vour	Document
Tiue	anu	AALIFE	ı oui	DOCUMEN	i

1. To name your Click untitled document in the top-left corner of document: the page

1.a. In the box Enter your document title that opens:

2.Type your * Google Docs has many of the same custom-document! ization features as Microsoft word

Saving your file
1.Saving as Google Doc file:	Google Docs automatically autosaves your file every few seconds, so there's no need to ever worry about losing a document!
2. Saving as an MS Word file:	Click the file menu at the top of the page, choose the download as option, and select the first option - Microsoft Word (.docx)
	It's that easy!

By Katherine Rose Consulting (thepq) cheatography.com/thepq/

Published 30th November, 2018. Last updated 1st July, 2019. Page 1 of 1.

Measure your website readability! https://readable.com

Sponsored by Readable.com