<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Say "Hey Vector" Wait for the ding sound and his Back Light to turn blue Say your name ("My name is Ash") Vector will confirm he understood by showing a yellow light and pronounce your name. If Vector thinks he recognizes you, he will ask, "Have we met before ?" - If you answer no , he continues scanning and enrolling your face - If you answer yes , he says, "I already know a <name>."

Cozmo & Anki: a new future
Anki, the company that created Cozmo and Vector, went bankrupt in April 2019 and shut down the following month. In December 2019, Anki assets were acquired by Digital Dream Labs.
Special thanks to the members of the OFFICIAL DIGITAL DREAM LABS Vector Owners Facebook group for their feedback and suggestions.

Software updates
Software updates for Vector are fully automated. When on Wi-Fi, the robot checks for updates every hour and applies updates once per day between 1am and 5am. You can check what version of software Vector is on by opening the Vector Robot app, then tapping the Settings icon on the top right, and clicking "Updates".

Blackjack: How to play

Hey Vector... I have a question

You must say "I have a question" before asking any question to Vector, then wait for the blue backpack lights and the ready sound before continuing:

Hey Vector... > pause > I have a question... > pause > blue light + ding sound > <question>

- When Vector asks "Another card ?", say yes for another card. Otherwise, say no,

- When Vector asks "Play another round ?", answer with yes or no,

- You can quit any time by saying "Hey Vector... Quit Blackjack".
