

St Iranaeus' Theory - Soul-making

St Iranaeus argued that suffering was the process to becoming more Christ-like. The Fall (Genesis) was the origin of evil but evil was used to transform us and create morals

Islam - Test of Suffering

Many Muslims believe that suffering is a test from Allah to ensure our dedication. By enduring suffering, we earn rewards in paradise. - "Be sure we shall test you [...] but give glad tidings to those who patiently persevere" - Qur'an Surah 155

Inconsistent Triad Diagram

St Augustine's Theory - Original Sin

St Augustine theorized that God made a perfect world but gave humans free will. When humans sinned, original sin entered the world and that was passed down to us. Genesis 3 - The Fall

Humanist Views

Humanists believe humans have a degree of control over our lives and that suffering is mostly caused by humans. They believe that natural evil is just the way the world is.

The Problem of Evil

The problem of evil is considered an inconsistent triad many scholars have suggested that if God is all loving and all powerful then he should have removed sin. Therefore, God is either not omnibenevolent or not omnipotent, as evil still exists.

Key terms

Natural Evil	Natural features of the world which cause suffering, and which have nothing to do with human beings
